

Application for Fellows of the Center for the Theology of Childhood

Each year the Center for the Theology of Childhood accepts applications to become a Fellow of the Center. Fellows travel to Denver to study at the Center's library for five days (or longer). Fellows must identify an academic project they hope to move forward by spending time at the Center. The Center may assist with publishing of the final project. The Senior Fellow of the Center The Rev. Dr. Jerome Berryman, or the Director of the Center The Rev. Cheryl V. Minor, Ph.D. will be available to help orient the Fellow to the library and consult on the project. The cost for becoming a Fellow is $500.00 per week.
